The Virginia Retail Sales and Use Tax Act provides that the Virginia sales and use tax shall not apply to the following:

- i) The lease, rental, license, sale, other transfer, or use of any audio or video tape, film or other audiovisual work where the transferee or user acquires or has acquired the work for the purpose of licensing, distributing, broadcasting, commercially exhibiting or reproducing the work or using or incorporating the work into another such work;
- ii) The provision of production services or fabrication in connection with the production of any such portion of such audiovisual work, including, but not limited to, scriptwriting, photography, sound, musical composition, special effects, animation, adaptation, dubbing, mixing, editing, cutting and provision of production facilities or equipment;
- iii) The transfer or use of tangible personal property, including, but not limited to, scripts, musical scores, storyboards, artwork, film, tapes and other media, incidental to the performance of such service or fabrication. However, audiovisual works and incidental tangible personal property described in clauses i) and iii) shall be subject to tax as otherwise provided in this chapter to the extent of the value of their tangible components prior to their use in the production of any audiovisual work and prior to their enhancement by any production service; and
- iv) Equipment and parts and accessories thereto used or to be used in the production of such audiovisual works.

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies that all tangible personal property purchased or leased from the above named supplier on and after this date will be purchased or leased for the purpose of producing or creating exempt audiovisual works and the licensing, distribution, broadcasting, commercially exhibiting or reproducing works for viewing or listening by the general public.
