This exemption certificate must be completed and maintained in the retailer's files to substantiate sales made to the U.S. Government.

Missouri law, Section 142.815.2(3), RSMo, allows exempt sales to the U.S. Government. The seller must obtain a signed exemption certificate from the purchaser (U.S. Government). The signed certificate must be maintained by the retailer, and must be updated every three years. The retailer must keep the original, signed certificate in its files to support sales made without state fuel tax. A copy of the certificate may be given to the customer or purchaser.
